BY TRACI BONNEY
Hancock Medical Center is starting the process of constructing a medical clinic at Diamondhead.

The hospital's board passed a resolution of intent to purchase land for the clinic, and requested that the board of supervisors support the hospital.

Hospital administrator Don Henderson told the supervisors Monday that the HMC board is ready to start work on the clinic. He said the board has an architect, and now needs to start the land acquisition.

He also said the hospital plans to bring a new physician into the county to practice at the clinic, and three other doctors already in practice have said they also want to use some of the clinic's space on a part-time basis.

Henderson told the supervisors the hospital board wants to purchase the land and build the clinic in the hospital's name, to absolve the county from any responsibility or liability related to the clinic.

The supervisors accepted the HMC resolution for filing, voiced no objection to the land purchase, and declared that the county is not responsible for any aspect of the land purchase, construction and operation of the clinic.

School bond sale finalized

BY TRACI BONNEY

The Bay St. Louis-Waveland school board locked in the sale of $2.7 million in general obligation bonds Monday, with an anticipated savings of more than $100,000 for the district.

After having called two special meetings to lock in the sale, then cancelling them because it could not be completed, the board gave authorization two weeks ago for the bond sale agreement to be signed when it was ready.

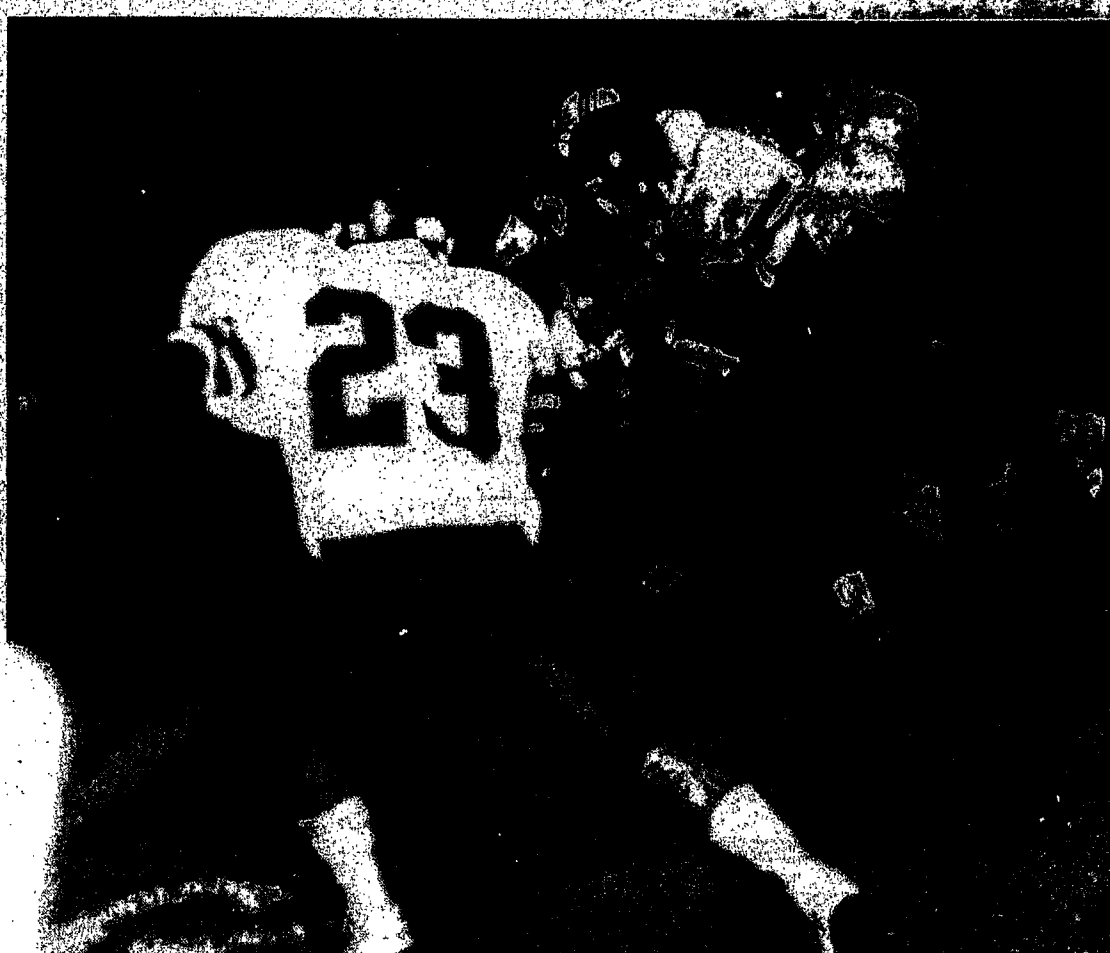

Monday, the board ratified its earlier authorization for chairman Linda Penrose and secretary James Wilcox to sign the bond sale agreement, as well as ratifying the agreement itself.

The board also ratified and directed the issuance of the general obligation bonds for $2,680,000 to refund the district's Series 1987 bonds; and authorized Penrose and Wilcox to send a letter to the paying agent on the 1987 bonds, a bank in Batesville, notifying the bank that the district will be calling the bonds.

Vance G. Reynoir, of Hattier, Sanford and Reynoir Investment Bankers in New Orleans, told the board Monday that the bond sale is expected to net the district approximately $144,000 in savings between now and the year 2008, when the new bonds come to final maturity.

The trustees had hired Hattier, Sanford and Reynoir and retained Lucien Bourgeois as bond counsel in September.

Christmas toy fund needs more support

BY ELLIS CUEVAS

The Hancock County Doll and Toy Fund will be trying to make Christmas happy for a record number of needy children.

Bay St. Louis Fire Chief Andrew Lizana, chairman of the fund, reports registration has already begun and noted, "I have already been informed by agencies that there will be a record number of youngsters, because of so many jobless people."

"It seems that even with more jobs in the area, there will still be more deserving children than ever," Lizana added.

The Doll and Toy Fund started out many years ago as a recycling project for a few bicycles and toys by the Bay Fire Department for 16 families.

It has now grown county-wide, with toys being delivered by firefighters, sheriff's deputies and Bay and Waveland patrolmen a few days before Christmas.

"Five years ago the number of youngsters increased to 1,000 and has been gradually moving up from that number each year," Lizana said.

In 1991, 1,171 children had a brighter Christmas because of the generosity of the people of Hancock County who supported the Doll and Toy Fund.

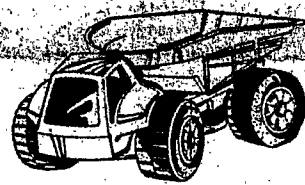

Funding comes from donations of toys, (new and slightly used), cash donations by individuals, organizations and businesses. It is also an agency of the United Way of South Mississippi.

Lizana purchases toys locally to fill his many orders, and merchants give him special prices.

Lizana stated, "I will be making my regular contacts within the next few weeks, and if there are others who would like to help, please give me a call at 467-4736."

"It takes the help of everyone to make this program successful," Lizana added.

The Doll and Toy Fund really works throughout the year, as toys are provided to families

Expanding services

Supervisors seek new computer system for county

BY JACQUI COCHRAN

The county board of supervisors is shopping for a new computer system to enhance county services.

Information Computers Maintenance Inc. gave a demonstration recently of a Motorola hardware and Odin software system.

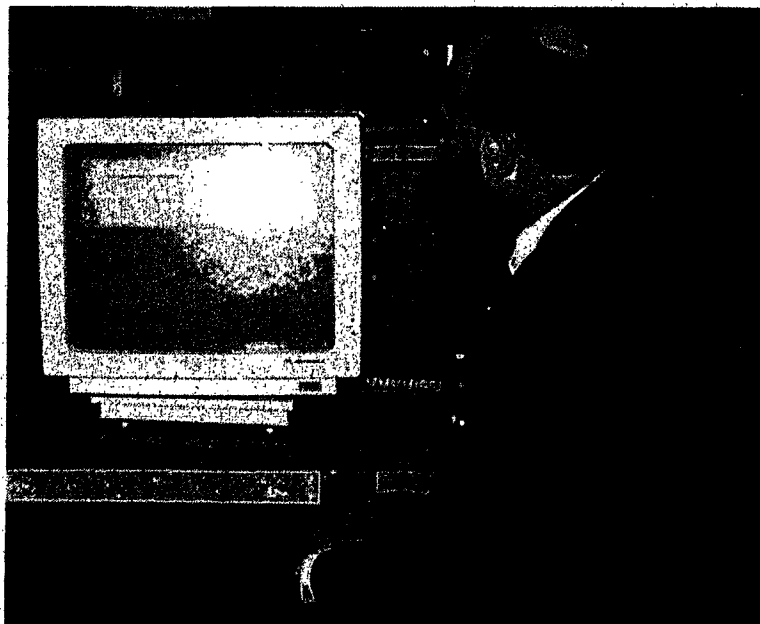

Tax assessor Eddie Murtagh reported, "We are looking for the system which can best serve the record-keeping needs of the county. Our computers are old, and they were secondhand to begin."

Murtagh said capabilities, programming and maintenance are important considerations.

CHILD DEVELOPMENT CENTER

Lora Mederos, director of the county Child Development Center, was asked to present plans for construction of a new center, after she said she was turning away children every day because of lack of space.

Board members said they

development funding in rental payments to the county, and in effect, repay the loan.

Valve causes gas leak at Hancock Elementary

BY TRACI BONNEY
A good wind blew no gas onto the Hancock North Central Elementary School campus Thursday after a valve on an underground gas tank ruptured.

The valve, which is on one of three tanks near the main building, ruptured around 9:30 a.m. Thursday, but Superintendent Myrna Bourgeois said no one was injured.

"Thank goodness, a north wind blew the gas off campus. Otherwise, we would have been in trouble," she commented.

However, classes were dismissed for the day.

Blossman Gas workers capped the leak and inspected the lines. Bourgeois said the district plans to replace all three tanks, which are used to heat the school, during the Thanksgiving holidays.

The students were back in class Friday.

School board adopts grievance policy

BY TRACI BONNEY
The Hancock County school board approved a policy Monday that allows non-certified personnel to file grievances against their employers and to appeal dismissals.

Clerk's office open Saturday

The Hancock County Circuit Clerk's office will be open next Saturday for absentee voting in the runoff election for Election Commissioner District 3.

Republican James Kasper will face Democrat Jay Lagasse. The office will be open from 8 a.m. until noon.

The policy adopted was not one that the board had reviewed earlier, which had general guidelines as to what constitutes a grievance and how complaints would be handled, but is the policy the board implemented for the food services department as required to maintain federal funding of the school feeding program.

The policy the board adopted allows the employee to file a complaint with his/her school principal or immediate supervisor, then appeal any decision made to the superintendent and finally to the school board.

The discussion about adopting a grievance policy arose following a controversy between transportation personnel and the administrative office.

OTHER BUSINESS

The board discussed, but did not take action on, a request from Hancock High School students that they be allowed to start a Christian Life Club at the school.

Celebration

Pass Christian Mayor Ted Lawyer and Stuffed Shirt manufacturing vice president Sam McClinton cut the ribbon to commemorate the completion of the Pass Mural Project, painted on the Stuffed Shirt factory building. The "door" behind the ribbon is painted onto the wall, as are windows around the corner. One door actually is a door; it was simply painted to match the others. The mural project is part of the Pass Christian Mainstreet Development board's downtown revitalization program. (Echo staff photo by Traci Bonney)

PASS MURAL

The school board trustees told the prospective club founders and their parents that the board needed specific guidelines for the club's goals, purpose and meetings before they could approve it.

The board also approved a number of consent agenda items, including several hiring recommendations and other personnel matters; advertising for or accepting bids on sports supplies and equipment, a school depository for three years, property sales, computer equipment purchases, order forms, a machine that makes posters, vocational supplies and a robotic training system; purchasing a used oil holding tank; making interfund loan transactions; borrowing money through the Cash Flow loan program; approving the hand checks and claims docket for October, the travel agenda, the acceptance of three out-of-district tuition students for the rest of the school year, a year's extension on a timber contract from Georgia Pacific Corporation on 16th Section land because of wet conditions; renewing on-the-job accident insurance with Commercial Life Insurance Company, and submitting a list of accidents to the company with the school district paying a $25 deductible for each one.

The board set four student hearings for November 9, starting at 4:30 p.m. The board also will hold a regular meeting that night.

industrial park improvements.

Commission executive director Harold "Buz" Olsen told the supervisors that Port Bienville needs about $500,000 in improvements, including repairs to the roads in the park. He said the commission plans to apply to the Department of Economic and Community Development for a grant under the Port Revitalization Loan Program.

OTHER BUSINESS

The supervisors heard reports from Tax Assessor/Collector Edward Murtagh, attorney Gerald Gex, chancery clerk/county administrator Mike Ncaise, parks and recreation department commissioner A.L. Franklin, Sheriff Ronnie Peterson, purchase clerk Suzette Beech, architect Mike Reeves, and road superintendent Sam Cuevas.

The board also took under advisement a request from citizens' task force representatives Geraldine Lang and Felecia Craft that the county donate the former Welfare office building for use as a youth recreation and education center.

The supervisors accepted a low bid from Twin L in Pass Christian for the painting of the courthouse exterior, contingent upon reception from Twin L of its builder's risk certificate of insurance.

The board approved the claims docket, the October 16-31 county payroll and the various commissioners' payrolls; accepted a letter from the Harrison County board of supervisors officially stating the county's withdrawal from the Gulf Coast Mosquito Commission, effective November 1; set a workshop for November 12; and recessed until 9 a.m. November 16.

"QUOTABLE QUOTES"

By Ellis C. Cuevas

Wednesday, Nov. 11 is Veterans Day, a day set aside to honor some 27 million living Americans who served and sacrificed on behalf of our nation's freedom.

In honor of this great day of celebration, there will be an annual Hancock County Veterans Day parade in Waveland.

The parade is to begin at 10 a.m. at the Waveland American Legion Post 77 and last about 30 minutes.

Following the parade there will be a special Veterans Day ceremony with a guest speaker from Keesler Air Force Base at the American Legion home.

Members of all veterans organizations and auxiliary members are urged to participate in the parade which will start to form at 9:30 a.m.

The public is invited to attend this special celebration.

The bands of Pearl River Community College, Bay Senior High, Hancock High, St. Stanislaus, St. Clare's marching group, and the 1355th Mississippi Army National Guard, honor guards and others are scheduled to participate.

The American Legion Post in Bay St. Louis and Waveland alternate each year as host for the parade.

Many of us take our freedoms for granted, yet millions of Americans by serving their country in the military are the real reason we have these freedoms.

I hope to see you at the parade Wednesday to honor those who have served in our Armed Services.

Our weather sure took a quick turn to being cool Wednesday night.

It seems the annual football game between Hancock High and St. Stanislaus is a time for cold weather.

Last year at Hawk stadium I almost froze covering the game, and it wasn't any different at the Rock-A-Chaw stadium Friday night.

Who knows, we may be in short sleeve shirts in a few days as we can talk about the weather, but cannot do anything about it.

There are still some folks who continue to smoke and I think do things at times which can be dangerous to them and others.

I was in conversation with a reader on Thursday who was concerned about an incident she witnessed this past week.

As she was filling her car's gas tank at a station, another motorist drove up and began to fill his vehicle's tank while he continued to puff away on a cigarette.

She mentioned to him how he was placing her into a dangerous situation, and he just ignored her.

I am no expert on fires, but if memory isn't failing me, there are no smoking signs posted by gas pumps.

This may be of interest to some of you sharpshooters. The Bay High Athletic Club will sponsor a turkey shoot on Saturday Nov. 15.

There will be a fish fry along with the turkey shoot, which is set from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. and will be at Com-magere Park, Bookter Street, Bay St. Louis.

Club members are having this fund-raiser to help with the construction of a track field for Bay High.

With the exception of a run-off in an election commissioner spot, the elections are now over with for awhile.

The time is now for all of the candidates or their supporters to remove the political signs from about the area.

I still note some large signs and also several others tacked to trees about the county and in the cities.

On the other hand, I do want to compliment those candidates who have already taken all of their political signs down.

Unit system survives 22-county test

Voters in 20 of 22 Mississippi counties displayed their support for the county unit system of government on Tuesday. Ballot results reaffirmed the belief that Mississippians want the fairest and most efficient use of their tax dollars, according to Don Kilgore, chairman of the Mississippi Economic Council's Committee on County Unit.

"We are extremely pleased that the unit system has the confidence of the people," Kilgore said. "Yesterday's vote helps to reinforce the unit system decision from 1988, which said that the people of Mississippi want a county government that is responsible, well-run and accountable for its actions."

The MEC has been a strong proponent of the unit system for over 40 years and played an active role in the passage of county unit legislation in 1988.

Following the Legislature's decision to allow counties to petition for a unit system ballot this year, MEC began preparing for another battle over the issue.

"We studied the financial records of 10 counties scheduled to vote on the unit system. Those studies were an effective weapon in convincing voters that the unit system means better use of taxpayer dollars at the county level," said Kilgore.

Counties voting to retain the unit system included Adams, Chickasaw, Clarke, Forrest, Hancock, Itawamba, Jefferson, Kemper, Lamar, Leake, Lee, Lincoln, Marshall, Monroe, Montgomery, Panola, Pike, Simpson, Stone and Union.

Jones and Tate counties were the only two to support a return to the beat system form of government.

Please join our campaign for healthier babies.

Veterans Day 1992

On Veterans Day, November 11, America honors all who served in its armed forces — 27 million living Americans who served and sacrificed on behalf of our nation's ideals and freedom. They deserve our grateful recognition. Let them know that you remember. Take part in your community's Veterans Day celebration.

(Published as a public service message by this newspaper on behalf of the Veterans Day National Committee.)

Veterans Day 1992

On November 11, Americans will again gather on courthouse squares, in national cemeteries and on main street sidewalks to sustain a 74-year tradition which originated from a moment of silence on foreign battlefields. It was on this date on the western front of World War I that soldiers of both sides of the conflict put aside their rifles, if only for a brief moment in time. That action became the cornerstone of an annual tribute to veterans and their contributions to freedom.

Veterans Day in its original observance was to signify the end of all wars. Although that prophecy has gone unfulfilled, it remains a day to rededicate ourselves to a lasting peace. Peace, just as war, requires faith, industry and sacrifice. And it requires that we exercise the precious rights over which our defenders have stood vigil.

This annual tribute, actually commenced on November 3 as citizens stepped into voting booths and drew the curtain. In that seemingly simple move, we offered laurels more eloquent than the grandest speech, parade or memorial. There is a greater significance to the privilege of pulling a voting lever or scratching an "X" beyond approving of a candidate's election to office; it affirms the infinite value of the blood shed and the lives lost in each of America's conflicts.

It isn't easy to wear the uniform of one's country. A unique sense of duty has led young men and women from each generation to military service and, in too many instances, the battlefield. It is an uncommon mettle that prompts an individual to leave the security of home and family, to delay or forfeit opportunities, to offer one's service, perhaps life, as a buffer between freedom and the ever present threats to its stability. We Americans are fortunate to have in our midst more than 26 million living examples of this mettle, and in our hearts are the more than one million who have died in this cause.

The United States Congress, with the support of the American people, has carefully developed programs and benefits to help square the nation's debt to those who have served in our defense. We thank them with health care services, compensation for their service-connected disabilities, pensions, insurance, education benefits, employment assistance, housing and burial benefits. In 1993, we will spend approximately $35 billion on these and other veterans' programs.

Still, the highest salute to their deeds is to wield the freedoms they have given us.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Family-style entertainment would encourage visitors' return

Dear Editor,

Casinos are bringing crowds to the Coast like we haven't seen in years, but are we offering them optional entertainment so they'll return often and bring the whole family?

Sure, we have a few golf courses and tennis courses and during summer our beautiful beaches with water sports, but that's about all there is.

Las Vegas became a major tourist draw in the middle of a desert because casinos, clubs and lounges all offered above-average nightly entertainment. And Circus Circus became a family draw with reasonable rates for room and food plus family-oriented day and night entertainment.

Today our crowds aren't large enough to offer the big bucks Vegas pays stars, but they're large enough to import off-season shows from other areas and at the same time form a nucleus of local talent so that we'll have tourists coming for our ancillary offerings and gambling while here.

If tourists bring families who like the Coast for it offers them entertainment, they'll stay longer and return again and again. Most of all they'll tell friends and neighbors what a great place we have here.

Remember, places like Branson grew because they offered family-oriented fun and entertainment. And until recently millions of tourists a year visited there mostly from word of mouth advertising.

So far we have 2/3 of the package: casinos, shopping and water sports, but lack the family-style entertainment.

Before outside sources promote and profit with good entertainment, let's see locals do it right. Keep the money on the Coast and bring on those tourists!

Overspending in Waveland must be stopped now

Dear Editor,

The efforts of some of us citizens of Waveland to inform the public as to the sorry state of the finances in Waveland, was labeled by alderman Barbara Rappold as "foolish—ridiculous." Those are well chosen words but used in the wrong context.

What could be more foolish and ridiculous than for a city to overspend its revenue by $477,149 in one year and plan to overspend by $816,332 in the next?

The fact is that city expenditures are out of control and no amount of vindictive rhetoric is going to change that. City officials are, as usual, completely indifferent to what the people want. I was one of those who stood and passed out fliers, and the comments I heard about the city officials would fry the ears of a mule skinner.

The hogwash put out by a representative of Moore and Powell, the city auditors, shows a strong predilection to please the mayor and aldermen rather than to serve the public interest.

The city administration is trying to cover itself by saying that we poor members of the public don't understand. Whatever they say, the facts are that they overspent revenues last year by $477,149 and plan to overspend by $816,332 in the current year. I would like to hear from them where the money is coming from to cover these deficits.

Mississippi to benefit from U.S. poultry and rice plans

U.S. Senator Thad Cochran praised U.S. Department of Agriculture Export Enhancement Program initiatives to encourage the sale of U.S. frozen poultry and rice.

Secretary of Agriculture Edward Madigan notified Mississippi's senior Senator with details of multi-country packages of initiatives for the sale of 58,000 metric tons of U.S. frozen poultry and 750,000 metric tons of U.S. rice.

"These plans will allow U.S. poultry and rice producers to compete fairly on the international market," said Cochran, a senior member of the Senate Agriculture Committee.

"I praise the Administration's efforts to expand markets for U.S. producers," he said.

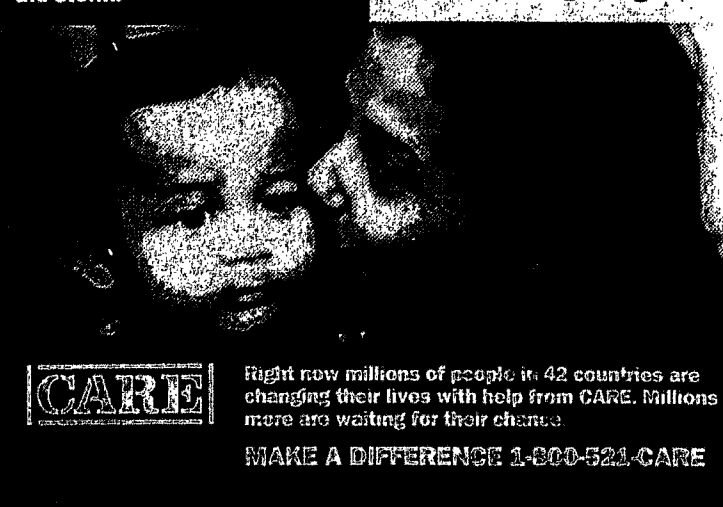

Cochran said the poultry initiative will give farmers and exporters a change to sell U.S. products at competitive prices against highly subsidized poultry exports from the European community.

Sales of U.S. frozen poultry under the Export Enhancement Program were nearly 26,000 metric tons in Fiscal Year 1992, with rice sales at 358,000 metric tons.

Both the poultry and rice initiatives will remain in effect until December 31, 1993.

Terese Gargiulo is Aldonza and Ben Wimberly Jr. is Sancho Panza. Man of La Mancha is the Broadway version of Miguel Cervantes' novel Don Quixote. ## Canal Street memories subject of documentary

The life and time of New Orleans' "Main Street" will be the focus of Canal Street: The Great Wide Way, a half-hour program airing Thursday, Nov. 19 at 7 p.m. with a repeat broadcast Sunday, Nov. 22 at 8 p.m.

The documentary will go back to the early 1800s, when the street was known as "common grounds," a dividing line of sorts between the French Creole culture and the new wave of residents known as Americans. Some historians attribute the evolution of the term "neutral ground" to that historic division.

Running from the Mississippi River to the cemeteries, the almost-four-mile street grew with the city. The documentary will concentrate on the downtown portion of Canal Street and feature interviews with locals who have special memories of the thoroughfare.

T&amp;G membership passes 700 mark

The Hancock County Tourism & Gaming Association (T&G) reached a milestone this week when its membership roll exceeded 700 members, according to Jim Henrie, president.

The T&G, established in 1989, began with approximately 20 business men and women whose objective was to improve economic development within Hancock County through increased tourism generated by the newly legalized dockside gaming industry.

"Our growth in membership within the past three years is clearly a reflection of increased involvement on the part of many with the tourism industry in our area. Most of our members are either directly employed by or indirectly involved with the tourism and gaming industries in Hancock County," Henrie stated.

The T&G, presently the only such organization of its kind in Mississippi, is exploring the possibility of creating additional groups in other Mississippi cities that are engaged in accommodating the new gaming industry to their areas.

"Such a statewide organization would be vital to this new industry and to tourism in general by promoting free enterprise as related to tourism and gaming; by promoting efficient, wise, and fair business practices on the part of the tourism and gaming industries; and by promoting fair taxation and legislation as they relate to the tourism and gaming industries," Henrie added.

Enjoy fall's color

Striking colors of yellow, orange, red and purple fill our eyes with amazement. Tree leaves are changing colors again. They do it every fall, but this year is different.

Our trees are real beauties this autumn. Some credit our cool moist weather for our brilliant colors. Others say Jack Frost finally got his act together.

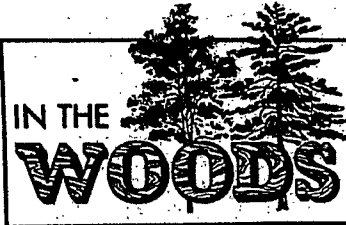

Get out and enjoy. Colors this rich will only last a few weeks. Visit a local national forest, state park or private forest land. Breathe the fresh air and relax; life doesn't get any better than this.

The trigger that starts tree leaves turning from green to a rainbow of colors is short days and long nights. Summer has passed and short days warn trees that winter is coming. It's time for them to prepare.

One big job in preparing for winter is to pack up essential nutrients and building blocks. These essentials are carried out of the leaves and stored in the branches. Next spring new leaves will reuse them. Trees can teach us about recycling. Chlorophyll is a major building block recycled every year. Trees like this green colored pigment. It gets excited in sunlight and produces energy. Trees depend on this energy and use it for food. Leaves are loaded with chlorophyll in the spring and summer.

As winter approaches, chlorophyll drains back into the branches for storage. Green moves out and other pigments and colors become visible.

Other colors were always there but were masked by green. Low moisture stress this fall has allowed the other colors to really show through.

Brilliant yellows are our most common fall color. Yellow comes from a pigment called xanthophyll. Trees known for great yellow fall colors are ash, hickory, walnut, tulip poplar, American beech and elm.

Orange colors are rare. They can occasionally be found in maples and sassafras. Carotene pigment (like in carrots) makes the orange color.

BY JANET MCQUEEN

The Coast Youth Ballet Ensemble will stage Tchaikovsky's The Nutcracker Saturday, Dec. 5, 7:30 p.m., at the Bay High auditorium. Co-sponsor of the event is the Bay High Fine Arts Association.

Professional ballerina Elizabeth McCoyd and her partner, Mateo Torres, of the Nashville Ballet Company, will appear in the roles of Sugar Plum Fairy and Cavalier Prince. They will perform the pas de deux as it was choreographed by Marius Petipa a century ago.

McCoyd is in her fourth season with the Nashville Ballet. She was formerly principal dancer with the Wilkes-Barre Ballet Theatre Company in Pennsylvania.

She has danced professionally with the Atlanta Ballet, Dance South and the Carlisle Project. She has a degree in ballet from Texas Christian University, where she also appeared with the Fort Worth Opera Ballet.

McCoyd has conducted two summer ballet workshops locally for The Ballet Place.

Torres, in his second season at Nashville, studied at San Francisco Ballet School and North Carolina School of the Arts.

He has performed with the Pasadena Dance Theatre, North Carolina Dance Theatre and Pennsylvania Ballet.

The Coast Youth Ballet Ensemble is in its third season. Chosen by auditions are 30 soloist, corp de ballet and apprentice positions. The non-profit company performs three to four times a year.

"We believe it is about time we showcase the great wealth of talent found right here on our own Gulf Coast, rather than importing and supporting companies from other areas," said artistic director Sharon Loiacano.

The Good Shepherd

Jesus said, "I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep..." John 10:11-14

The analogy of the shepherd and His sheep to Jesus and His people is a familiar one. Jesus, as our Shepherd, gave His life for all humankind. What have you given Him in return?

Problems women have with hysterectomies.

1. Pain
2. Scarring
3. Blood loss
4. Missing work

New "Micro-Incision Surgery" may reduce these problems.

The Laser and Advanced Surgical Procedures Center now offers a modern micro-incision surgical procedure that can reduce the problems associated with a hysterectomy. This procedure is called Laparoscopic Assisted Hysterectomy.

Unlike conventional abdominal hysterectomies using a scalpel, there's no major incision through stomach muscles. Instead, advanced surgical techniques and equipment are used -- including laparoscopes -- making gynecological surgery less problematic.

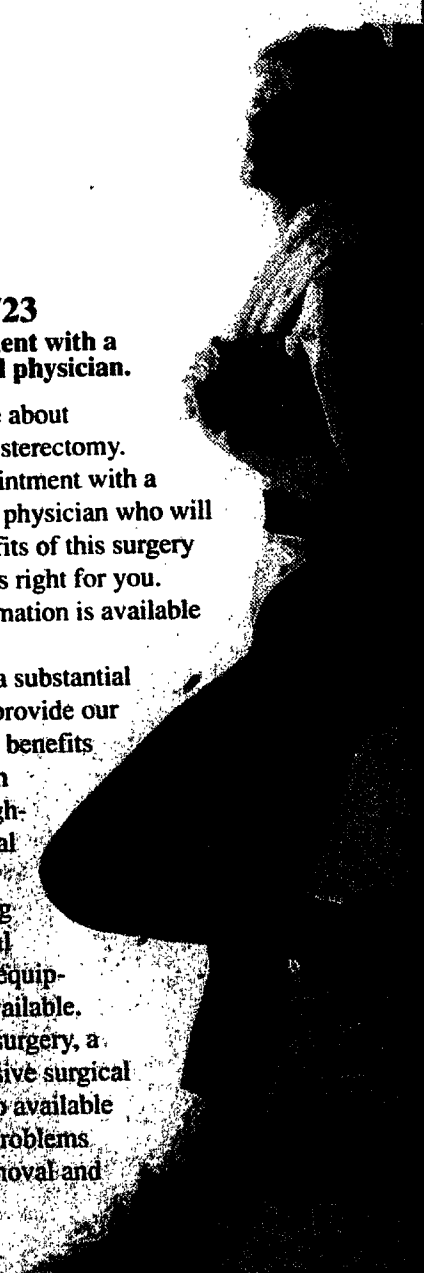

With micro-incision surgery, a minimally-invasive surgical technique, the incisions are much smaller, so tissue damage is reduced. You are likely to experience less pain and better cosmetic results than with traditional surgery. The chance of complications or infection is reduced. And recovery is much faster, meaning fewer days in the hospital and a faster return to a normal routine.

Our surgeons have undergone special training utilizing the advanced instrumentation that makes this procedure possible. So before undergoing surgery, explore the benefits available with this technique.

for an appointment with a specially-trained physician.

Find out more about Laparoscopic Hysterectomy. Call for an appointment with a specially-trained physician who will explain the benefits of this surgery and tell you if it's right for you. Additional information is available upon request.

We've made a substantial commitment to provide our patients with the benefits of micro-incision surgery. Our highly-skilled surgical team undergoes on-going training as newer surgical procedures and equipment become available. Micro-incision surgery, a minimally-invasive surgical technique is also available for abdominal problems (gallbladder removal and appendectomy).

'Cats claw Tigers 16-7

BY RANDY PONDER

Mixing the run and pass to perfection, the Long Beach Bearcats derailed the Tiger playoff express, 16-7, Friday night in Lance Lumpkin Stadium.

"We got beat," a disappointed Bay High coach Rocky Gaudin stated. "They played better than we did. You get what you work for; we didn't deserve to win. We didn't practice well and that's the way we played."

Bay High, winners of five straight games, received to start the contest, ran three plays and fumbled the ball to the Bearcats at the Tiger 38.

Long Beach could not capitalize on the opportunity and punted the ball back to the Tigers after failing to pick up a first down.

Neither team could muster much offense in the early going. The Tigers took the kick, ran three plays and punted from the 2.

The Bearcats took possession at the Bay High 48 and fumbled the ball away on their first play, a 33-yard pass to Steve Miller. Brennan Compretta made a jarring, touchdown saving tackle to cause the fumble. The Tigers made the recovery on their own 15.

Miller redeemed himself several plays later, however, when he picked off a Tiger pass near the Bay High 27.

The Bearcats delivered a wake-up call to the Tigers, marching in for the first score of the game. Quarterback Chris Reinike got the TD on a 5-yard run the first play of the second period after escaping a tackle behind the line. Miller added the extra point for a 7-0 Bearcat lead.

Bay High retaliated with a long drive to knot the final regular season game of the year at 7-7.

Starting at their 31 following the kick, Larrone Lewis ran for a couple of yards. Compretta gained 5 and then on third down, broke loose for 10 more and a first down.

Dwayne Antoine took a hand-off and charged down field for 20 big yards and another first down.

Lewis followed with yet another first down on an 11-yard pickup to the Bearcat 21.

Two runs and a personal foul against Long Beach gave the Tigers first and goal to go at the 6. Two consecutive 5-yard penalties on Bay High moved the ball out to the 16.

Antoine recovered the lost yardage and more on a bruising run up the middle, all the way to the Bearcat 2. Quarterback Sam Sheppard collected the points as his offensive line pushed across the goal line. Shawn Keener tied the score with his extra point.

Long Beach came right back and almost took the lead. Two long passes advanced the ball to the Tiger 25 before the Bearcats took a shot to the end zone. The ball, receiver and defender all came together at the same time, resulting in a pass interference call against Bay High.

The penalty gave Long Beach a first down on the Tiger 13. With their backs against the wall, the Bay High defense dug in and defused the threat. Three plays resulted in a loss of 4 yards. On fourth down, the Bearcats attempted a 30-yard field goal which fell short of the mark.

Bay High had held, and the first half ended in a 7-7 tie.

Long Beach took the lead for good on the last play of the third quarter when Avery Taylor broke several tackles and dove into the end zone to cap a 72-yard, 10-play drive. Yancey Mayfield blocked the PAT, holding the score to 13-7.

Bay High responded on their ensuing possession with a big run by Lewis to the 38. A facemask penalty on the play advanced the ball to the Bearcat 48. Unfortunately, Bay High fumbled the ball on the next play and Long Beach recovered.

The Bearcats quickly moved downfield, alternately running and passing the ball. The drive stalled at the Tiger 13, forcing Long Beach to attempt another 30-yard fieldgoal. This time the kick was good, increasing the lead to 16-7 at the 7:37 mark of the final stanza.

Bay High again self-destructed, turning the ball over on a pass interception the first play of their next possession.

Long Beach took full advantage, using up all but 15 seconds of the remaining time before turning the ball over to Bay High on downs near the Tiger 23.

Bay High tried to move downfield by the pass, but it was too little too late, and as the buzzer sounded they found themselves on the short side of a 16-7 score to end the regular season.

Next week Bay High will enter the state District 8, Class

3-A playoffs with a road trip to Raleigh. Kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m.

"My job now is to get them on track for next week," Gaudin said.

Hawks explode over Stanislaus

BY ELLIS CUEVAS

It was a great performance Friday night by a Hancock High football squad that had struggled in its five previous games, as the Hawks triumphed over winless Stanislaus.

The Hawks had their own way the entire game by controlling the offensive and defensive lines, and closed the season with a 42-8 victory over the Rock-A-Chaws.

The final game of the season for both squads, Stanislaus celebrated Parent Appreciation Night by introducing the parents and student senior members of the football, band and cheerleader squads prior to the game.

There was no stopping Hawk senior Dennis Malley, who scored three touchdowns, and junior Lance Wedgeworth, who scored two TDs. Malley had 10 carries for 119 yards; Wedgeworth, 12 carries for 146 yards.

As the cool crisp north winds blew, Hancock kicked off to the Rocks, who had to punt after three cracks at the line. Hancock took the punt on their own 47-yard line.

Five plays later, Malley scored on a 28-yard run. The PAT by exchange student Antonio Carrillo gave them a 7-0 lead with 7:53 left in the first quarter.

An elated Hawk head coach Irvin Favre said as the game ended, "We played a good football game from the beginning all the way to the end. We played hard all the night and it was a good win for the seniors at the end of the year."

St. Stanislaus, but I know they will be back. I thought all our kids did a good job. Our seniors played really well and we got everyone into the game."

The victorious coach continued, "I am pleased we ended up on top because we had been struggling for the past five games. I know Stanislaus has too, but somebody had to win tonight and I am glad it was us."

Ken Lyons, in sizing up the Hawks, said, "Hancock has a good team and the score indicates it. We seemed to have some timing problems which interfered with execution on our offense, but our kids played hard and I am proud of them."

"We are disappointed that we did not have a better season and we plan on being back next season."

Following the first score, Stanislaus tried to get their offense moving once again, only to be stopped on a fumble on the crack at the Hawk line in that series. Hancock got good field position on the Rocks' 28-yard line.

Five plays later it was a 2-yard score by Wedgeworth. A PAT gave Hancock a 14-0 lead with 3:19 still left in the first quarter.

Stanislaus received the punt and this time was stopped on a pass interception by James Prive on the Hancock 43-yard line.

On the next play, the Hawks returned the ball to Stanislaus on a fumble at the SSC 40-yard line.

Stanislaus engineered their best drive of the first half as sophomore quarterback Nathan Middleton hit split end Jeffrey Bishop with a pass to the Hawk 31-yard line.

Stanley Chapman moved to the 18 on the next play for another first down.

The Hawk defense stiffened and the Rocks came up a yard short of a first down after four plays at the Hancock 9-yard line.

Midway through the second quarter, a long Hancock drive was stopped on a pass interception by Bishop on the Rock 12-yard line.

A crack at the Hawk line and two pass incompletions forced Stanislaus to punt. Junior Allen Schafer got a 50-yarder plus boot, moving the ball back to the Hawk 33.

On their longest sustained drive of the night, Hancock capped a nine-play series with Malley scoring on a 1-yard plunge. Hancock faked a PAT and added 2 points on a pass to Joe Green. With 50 seconds left in the first half, Hancock was up 22-0.

In third quarter action, Hancock received the kickoff and marched down the field for a score, with Malley adding his third touchdown of the night on a 10-yard run. Carrillo's third PAT of the night made the score 29-0.

Not giving up on scoring, the Rocks got their best drive of the night going.

Key plays in the drive were a long pass from Middleton to Matt Chance and a fake punt on fourth down when Chapman picked up a first down plus more yardage.

Middleton outdistanced the Hawks on a keeper sweep to his right for a 4-yard score.

Middleton then hit Bobby Williams with a pass for 2 more points, making the score 29-8 edge with 2:27 left in the third quarter.

Hancock added another score in the fourth quarter on a half-back pass, as Wedgeworth hit Brian Lindsey, who was wide open, for a score. The PAT gave the Hawks a 38-6 lead early in the fourth quarter.

On the next series, a Rock pass was intercepted by Wedgeworth, but this break for Hancock was turned around a few plays later when Stanislaus recovered a Hawk loose ball.

However, SSC was forced to punt and Hancock got their last scoring drive underway with Wedgeworth making his second touchdown of the night with only 2:41 left in the contest. The PAT was no good, giving Hancock a 42-8 edge.

On the final series of Rock plays, a lot of new faces were in the game for both teams.

Middleton continued to call the signals and made several handoffs to 125-lb. junior tailback George Kerner, who picked up a first down. Middleton picked up one himself on a keeper as the game ended.

Hancock ended the season at 4-7, with a 2-4 record in the Division VIII Class 4-A conference, while Stanislaus was 0-10, 0-6 in conference.

Rocks rely on speed in basketball season

Special to the Echo
 By Peter Martinez

The 1992-93 St. Stanislaus basketball team continued to practice as they prepare for the upcoming season.

Coach Jay Ladner's Rock-A-Chaws are a young team and have not played together very long, but they promise to turn heads this year.

"Our main goal is a winning season," said Ladner. "Then we look forward to a trip to the South State tournament. But first, we must do well in our district."

There are no returning starters from last year's team, and only one of last year's varsity members, Evan Morris, will return.

"We are a different type of team (than last year)," stated Ladner. "We are quicker and have better athletic ability. We are just inexperienced."

The Rock-A-Chaws, who are not physically larger than their competitors, plan to use their quickness to overcome physical and experience barriers.

Ladner said his team plans to use more full court pressure defense to utilize the "quickness" of his players.

Based on last season's record and the loss of payers, some project the Rocks to finish near the bottom of the district race.

"We hope that this will not hold true at the end of the season," said Ladner.

Ladner asked for all SSC fans to come out and cheer for the team. "We need their support," commented Ladner. "We would like to have all of the great support we had last year continue over this year."

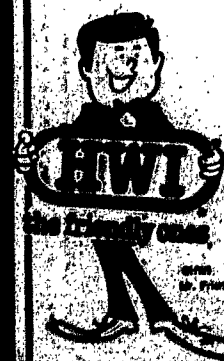

The Rock-A-Chaws will have a chance to prove themselves in the County Tournament, which begins Nov. 12 in the Brother Peter Memorial Gym at SSC.

Ask the Veteran's Service Center

By Donald Mauffray
Veteran's Service Officer

Veterans Day 1992

Veterans Day 1992 will be celebrated on Wednesday, November 11. There will be a joint parade of local veterans organizations this year at American Legion Post 77 on Coleman in Waveland.

Post 77 and Post 139 of Bay St. Louis alternate each year for sponsoring the parade. Parade time is 10 a.m., but those participating are urged to be there by 9:30 a.m. Everyone who possibly can is asked to please come out and show your appreciation for our veterans. Refreshments will be served at Post 77 following the parade.

On this very special day, all Americans can gather to voice of soldiers in opposing trenches emerged into sunlight. Voices were raised in several languages, thanking God that the fighting was over, and expressing hope that war would never come again. That hope proved to be naive.

November 11, 1942, found Americans engaged in vicious fighting at Guadalcanal, one of the toughest battles of World War II. November 11, 1950, found Americans slugging their way to the Yalu River during Korea's freezing winter.

On November 11, 1965, Americans were entering the la Drang ("Ya Drang") valley in Vietnam for what would be the protecting American lives and restoring order.

On November 11, 1989, we recalled the sailors whose duty station was turret No. 2 aboard the Battleship Iowa when an accidental explosion took their lives. More recently, on November 11, 1990, American servicemen and women were preparing to lead an international force in "Operation Desert Storm," destined to turn back aggression in the Persian Gulf.

The salute to veterans is more than a gesture... it's an opportunity to reflect on what our veterans have fought to protect for us.

The right to elect the nation's leaders in government.

The freedom to speak and write openly and publicly on the issues that concern us.

The right to worship according to our beliefs.

The right to travel freely, and meet with anyone we please.

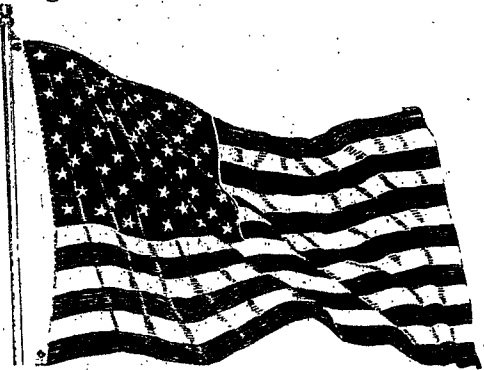

The opportunity to see, hear and read news gathered and written without government intervention.

Today, we honor all those who have served. We thank you for being the prime ingredient in keeping America free. To others who are honoring loved ones who are no longer with us, we wish you comfort and peace of mind.

God bless America... and her veterans!

P.S. The Ladies Auxiliary of VFW Post 3253 is sponsoring a Poppy Day Sale on Saturday, November 14, and I urge everyone who drives Hwy. 90 on that day to please stop for a poppy and make a donation. Mrs. Genevieve Cole and the rest of the auxiliary, as well as myself and all veterans, will thank you very much. Thank you all.

Donald Mauffray
County Veterans Service Officer

our thankfulness and appreciation for the many freedoms we enjoy today, and we in Mississippi are happy to salute the more than 234,000 living Mississippi veterans who served their country in uniform and to gratefully remember the 28,000 who died during wartime service.
